

REAL ID CARD VS. STANDARD CARD

REAL ID CARD ★

Driver's license- has same privileges as standard card
 Identification card- has same privileges as standard card
 Same documents required as standard card
 Same fee as standard card
 Same expiration as standard card

- What's different?
 - The Real ID has a gold circle with a star cutout.
- Why get a Real ID?
 - A Real ID can be used as identification for boarding aircraft, or entering federal facilities when identification is required.

STANDARD CARD

Driver's license- has same privileges as Real ID card
 Identification card- has same privileges as Real ID card
 Same documents required as Real ID card
 Same fee as Real ID card
 Same expiration as Real ID card

- What's different?
- Standard cards have the verbiage: NOT FOR FEDERAL OFFICIAL USE printed above the blue header. Per the Department of Homeland Security, the standard card is still valid for identification but will not be accepted for boarding an aircraft or entering Federal facilities beginning 10/1/2020.

Real ID Marking is a gold circle with a star cutout

ALL standard cards will be marked with the following verbiage: NOT FOR FEDERAL OFFICIAL USE

CARDS ISSUED PRIOR TO NOVEMBER 12, 2014, REMAIN VALID UNTIL EXPIRATION. HOWEVER, THEY DO NOT CONTAIN THE GOLD CIRCLE. STATEMENTS ON FEDERAL OFFICIAL USE OR LIMITED TERM.
