ADVISORY

NRS 445B.700 to 445B.845, NAC 445B.400 to 445B.735, NAC 445B.5805

The Department of Motor Vehicles may deny, suspend, or revoke your station and/or your inspector license if you violate any provision of the following Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) or Nevada Administrative Codes (NAC). NRS 445B and NAC 445B are available on our website at www.dmvnv.com.

NRS 445B.790: If the approved inspector or the holder of a license refuses to furnish the Department with the requested material or document, or if the station or inspector issues any fraudulent certificate of compliance. This includes but is not limited to:

- 1) A backdated certificate;
- 2) A postdated certificate; and
- 3) A certificate issued without an inspection.
- 4) The approved inspector does not follow the prescribed test procedure.

NRS 445B.840: Willfully and knowingly fail to comply with the provisions of NRS 445B.700 to 445B.815 inclusive, or any regulation adopted by the Department of Motor Vehicles. It is unlawful for any person to possess any unauthorized evidence of compliance or issue evidence of compliance if he or she is not a licensed inspector of an authorized station.

NRS 445B.845: A violation of any provision of NRS 445B.700 to 445B.845 inclusive is a misdemeanor.

NAC 445B.463: If the licensee is convicted of violating any provisions of NAC 445B.400 to 445B.735 inclusive or if a station attempts to alter the readings obtained during a test of exhaust emissions or to modify or remove the data obtained by an exhaust gas analyzer or a certified on board diagnostic system. The following acts, omissions and conditions may constitute a ground for denial, revocation, or suspension:

- 1) Failure of the applicant or licensee to have an established place of business in this State.
- 2) Material misstatement on the application.
- 3) Unfitness of the applicant or licensee, which includes, without limitation, a pattern of payment to the Department with checks that are returned because of insufficient funds.
- 4) The conviction of the applicant or licensee of a felony.
- 5) The conviction of the applicant or licensee for violating any section of NRS 598 relating to deceptive trade practices.
- 6) Refusing to allow an agent of the Department to inspect records, required materials and equipment during normal business hours.
- 7) Engaging in conduct which is egregious or poses a serious risk to the public safety

NAC 445B.489: The Department may deny, suspend, or revoke an inspector's license if:

- 1) The approved inspector fails to establish by satisfactory evidence to the Department that he or she is employed by a test station with an appropriate rating or has knowingly made any false statement or concealed any material fact on his or her application for a license.
- 2) The approved inspector knowingly submits false, inaccurate or misleading information of evidence of compliance on any other records submitted to the Department.
- 3) The approved inspector does not follow the Departments prescribed testing procedures pursuant to NAC 445B.580, 445B.5805 and 445B.589 or makes an inaccurate determination regarding a classification of a motor vehicle.
- 4) The approved inspector allows evidence of compliance to be completed or issued by a person who is not an approved inspector or allows another person to perform a test using the identification number assigned to the approved inspector.
- 5) The approved inspector fails to comply with any provision of NAC 445B.400 to 445B.735 inclusive.
- 6) The approved inspector submits to the Department falsified credentials or certifications of training.
